Mr. Dillard Gardner, Librarian
Supreme Court Law Library
Raleigh, N. C.

Dear Mr. Gardner:

Thank you for your letter of the 11'th.

We shall be glad to comply with your request that we have a number of additional copies of the "tentative lists" on hand in Raleigh, October 27'th. We shall not try to have copies for all the members of the Bar in attendance at Raleigh, for I feel that comparatively few will be interested in having them. In connection with your report, what do you think of announcing that a few copies of the lists are available to interested persons?

Mr. Sidney Stern, Jr., of Greensboro has just written me an interesting letter about the progress the Greensboro Bar Library is making. Their plan contains some novel and interesting features which, I believe, will be helpful to other groups interested in establishing Bar Libraries. In acknowledging Mr. Stern's letter, I told him if your program for our meeting was not already full, I thought you would probably ask him to join us. How about it?

In addition to acting as an exchange center for duplicate North Carolina material, we shall be glad to assist Bar Libraries in locating good second-hand copies of desired books and sets of books, if their committees will advise me what they are interested in. If you wish, you may include this offer in your report to the State Bar along with the announcement of the exchange center.

Remember me to the little daughter, and to Mrs. Gardner.

Sincerely,

Mary S. Corington
